THE CONCERT.

Another Conquest for the Los Angeles Sanatorium.

The Verdict is that Miss Mamie Improves With Each Effort—A Large and Appreciative Audience.

It was in harmony with the principles governing the eternal fitness of things that a portion of the funds required to erect a pipe organ in the new Episcopal church (that is to be) should be raised by a musical concert, and that this entertainment should be under the management of Miss Mamie Perry.

The double inducement offered to the public to patronize it, the opportunity to contribute to a worthy cause and to hear a fine musical programme by pure artists, local artists, the success of the concert was a foregone conclusion. The audience last evening at Turner Hall was a first-class one, both in respect to quality and numbers, and proved itself to be critical and appreciative.

The concert began at twenty minutes past eight, by the performance of the overture to the "Gosses d'Amalfi," rendered most artistically by Wagonman's orchestra. Miss Perry was saluted with generous applause and sang a difficult air from Gaude Ludra, and when encored rendered in a very pleasing manner and with great sweetness of expression, a wistful "Wistful Star," the simple melody being appreciated equally with the more intricate performance of the previous song.

Judge Sepulveda will exchange benches with Judge Hines, of Ventura county, this week.

A CAR HORSE'S FREAK.

His Maker's Commotion in a San Jose Home.

(San Jose Times.)

The narrow-gauge railroad company is prosecuting a thousand-dollar circus show to the annual work of drawing a street car, as car No. 1 was passing along San Carlos street, at its intersection with Fourth, the street car was becoming wedged with the life it was leading, and also possibly disgusted by the action of a small boy, who had viciously thrown a bomb under his heels, made a bold dash for liberty and succeeded in freeing himself from the onerous car and making a dash for the Fourth street gate stood open at the cottage of Edward Johnson, as well as the door of the house. Here was a refuge, and the horse dashed in. He was not deterred by the fact that Mr. Johnson and his son-in-law, Oliver Chapman, were sitting on the porch and Mr. Johnson was sitting in the chair, in a rocking chair placed beside him. He passed between the gentlemen, jumped over the lady (Mrs. Johnson) and ran to the chair, knocked down Mrs. Chapman, who was standing in another doorway, passed over another chair or two and went on into the kitchen. In this room were two little girls about six years of age, who fled from the horse out into the yard and into a stable in the rear yard, where they were followed by the horse, which, both of them being knocked down, and one of them stunned by the fall. The horse was here secured and taken again to the car. Mrs. Chapman received some slight bruises, as did the children.

Good Rules for Emergencies.

Food dusts, dusts, avoid rubbing water in them, remove cinders, etc.

Remove insects from the ear with warm water; never put a hard instrument into your ear.

If an artery is cut compress below it. If choked, get upon all fours and cough.

Smother a fire with carpets, etc.

Water will often spread burning oil and increase danger. Before passing through smoke, take a full breath and then stop, but if carbonic gas is suffocating, walk erect.

Shut poisoned wounds, or cut out the wound part as long as can be borne to a hot coal or the end of a cigar.

Passes for San Francisco the train that leaves Los Angeles for Wilmington at 4:30 P. M.

Los Angeles time.

TRIVIALITIES.

The "new party" seems to have been Boycotted.

You plant onions in rows and reap them in them.

In Missouri train robberies are considered as all lawful acts.

Somebody seems to be talking politics down in Pennsylvania.

There is a haunted house in Harlem,

N. Y., "haunted by a liar, probably."

"Ruin sees that, rootless thing," as the dentist said when he broke off the patient's tooth.

Arabi Bey used to be in the folder business and the Khedive would be to see him folder now.

Dexter says a Cambridge minister preached from the pulpit "but last Sunday, God, he preached."

Garibaldi's body was not cremated.

His friends thought he had stood fire enough in his lifetime.

"By their fruits ye shall know them."

Hence we always find the early strawberry vendee is a millionaire.

Not only is the secret of the Keely motor impossible to discover; it is now a powerful hand thing to dig

Keely.

The London Times thinks Garibaldi lived too long. Great pity. Why didn't the editor of the Times kill him?

"President Arthur is going stouter," says a Washington correspondent.

Certainly he doesn't appear to weaken any.

A man was thrown from his bicycle down in Connecticut last week and instantly killed. A bicycle is about as dangerous as a nuke.

Maggie Mitchell is twenty-seven again this summer. Maggie has a way of going back to law so often she never will get her game played through.

His full name is William Edman

Ashwood-Bartlett-Budget Court, and he feels as full of hyphens as though he had swallowed the font.

Garibaldi was the son of a sailor, and was an old whaler himself. He was twice married; once for keeps and once on the European plan.

We would suggest to the Governor of Brookfield, that he should adopt the Missouri plan, that he should get the

Missouri plan, that he should get the
